Judge Blaine Resigns JP Office; Attorney Walsh To Be Appointed

MERCHANTS WILL STAY OPEN EACH FRIDAY EVENING FROM 7 TO 9 P.M.

County Supervisors Expected To Name Justice of Peace-elect To Fill Term

Attorney Martin S. Walsh of Campbell is expected to be appointed to the office of Justice of the Peace of Campbell Township when the County Board of Supervisors convenes next Monday morning. Justice of the Peace John D. Blaine, who has held the office for 24 years and seven months, submitted his resignation to the board on Monday of this week.

Walsh was elected to the office at the June primaries and would have taken office on January 1, 1951 at the end of Judge Blaine's term. Judge Blaine was not a candidate for re-election this year, having announced that he planned to retire and did not intend to participate in a three-way contest for the office. He supported Walsh's unsuccessful opponent, Raymond Foster Kuntz for the office.

Judge Blaine's letter stated his resignation was effective as of August 1. A delay of one week, during which the township has been without a justice of the peace, was believed due to the lack of preliminary knowledge of the resignation, which caught both the supervisors and Walsh unawares.

Judge Blaine mailed the letter Friday and it was in the supervisor's office Monday morning. Walsh said there was insufficient time for him to file application for appointment and for the supervisors to act on it while they were in session Monday.

APPLICATION FILED
He met Fourth District Supervisor Joseph McKinnon in San Jose Monday and was notified that he should file application for the interim judgeship, which he did. Presumably, the board will act on the application Monday. Meanwhile local cases for the justice court are being cited to San Jose justice courts.

Judge Blaine told the Campbell Press he was astonished when he learned that the supervisors had not immediately appointed Attorney Walsh to the office. "I had thought at first that I would tell Mr. Walsh that I was going to resign, but I let it ride. We had had no communication during the campaign, and I supported his opponent, but when I learned that he was not appointed immediately I was completely bowled over."

"I was interested in Mr. Walsh particularly, because I thought he wanted to go on a vacation. He and Mrs. Walsh usually take a month's trip every year. I haven't had one week of vacation in the 24 years and seven months I have been the justice of the peace."

Judge Blaine explained that the Campbell court is a Class B justice court, and, as such, he was not provided with a court clerk, as is the case with the Class A courts. "My office is in my home," he stated, "and I have not slept outside my home in the entire 24 years and seven months, so I have been available every day." The law requires that the office be open every judicial day. Class A justice courts require that the judge be an attorney. This is not required for Class B courts.

In class A courts, the court clerk may act for the judge on all matters except those requiring rendering of a decision or passing judgment.

During recent months Judge Blaine, who has been ill with abdominal disorder, has been conducting court from his couch, unable to sit up. It was this condition which brought about his decision to resign.

This morning, for the first time in months, the judge was sitting up again, and agreed that he believed he is improving.

Police District Outline Set for Review At County Boundary Commission Meet

Boundaries of the proposed Campbell Police District will be considered at the meeting of the Santa Clara County Boundary Commission tentatively called for Monday, August 14.

Rex Kaber, chairman of the police committee of Campbell American Legion Post 596, which has requested establishment of the district, received notice of the coming meeting from Richard Olson, clerk.

Plans for the 16-square-mile district were drawn up with aid of County Counsel Howard Campen. Proposed boundaries have been reviewed by County Assessor Hayden Pittman.

When boundaries have been approved, the Legion Patrol will circulate a petition for establishment of the district. Fifty signatures are necessary before the petition can be filed with the County Board of Supervisors who would then hold public hearings on the application.

Should the supervisors approve the district, after holding hearings, the board would appoint three commissioners to establish and supervise the district. Upon expiration of their terms, residents of the district would elect future commissioners.

Assessed valuation of the proposed district is between $10 and $15 million. Population is approximately 15,000. The State Health and Safety Code provides that funds for maintenance of such a police district shall be raised thru a tax rate of not more than one-half of one percent of the assessed valuation.

The family were residents of Campbell, living at 76 Casey Road. Miller, a native of Lindsay, was employed by a telephone company. He is survived by a sister Mrs. Vera Gann of Lindsay and a brother, Jess Miller of Missouri.

Mrs. Miller is survived by her mother, Mrs. August Pfab of Peru Ill.

The three were killed outright when their car went out of control and crashed into a bridge on San Felipe Road, two miles south of Evergreen. According to police, Miller, driver of the car, was apparently trying to right the vehicle when it crashed broadside into a heavy bridge railing.

The victims were trapped in the wreckage of the demolished auto.

In a minor accident involving a local resident, Verdine M. Burgess of Meridian Road, hit a power pole with her car Thursday, July 27 on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, near Pioneer Avenue. She sustained only minor injuries.

Purse Snatcher Takes $16 From Local Woman

Mrs. A. G. Cutting, 280 Grant Avenue, was the victim of a purse snatcher Monday afternoon. She had left her purse in a baby buggy at Third Street and Campbell Avenue, for a few minutes. When she returned, the purse was gone.

When the purse was recovered, Mrs. Cutting discovered that $16 was missing.

The purse was returned to her by the janitor at Campbell Elementary School who had found it and its contents scattered about inside the tool shed on the school grounds.

Campbell Legion Patrol Captain Jack Chappell questioned two youngsters in connection with the theft, one of whom admitted having been playing in the shed and seeing the purse, but denied taking the money.

Private funeral services were held Tuesday for Alfred E. Treat, 78, long-time rancher of 1449 Meridian Road, who died Sunday in a San Jose hospital after a long illness.

Vic Orlando Sells Shoe Repair Shop To C. L. Flindt

Ownership of the Modern Shoe Repair Shop, located in the "Friendly Shopping Center" has changed hands.

It was revealed today that present owner Vic Orlando sold his business to C. L. Flindt of Rinconada Terrace.

When asked his reason for selling out, Orlando stated that "due to pressing world conditions and the fact that I'm eligible for future military service, I am acting accordingly."

He is in the naval reserve with a rating of S1/c (GM).

The new proprietor, C. L. Flindt, will take over August 15. Flindt brings to Campbell 40 years of shoe repairing ability. He maintained a shop in San Jose until his retirement several years ago.

The abundant idleness got the better of him, forcing him back into activity. He chose Campbell for his new business locale because he "believes in Campbell and its business future."

Flindt acquired a 74-year lease on the property. He intends to improve and better his machinery. He purchased Orlando's entire stock and machinery.

There will be no change in the business' name, Flindt said, as of now, it will remain the Modern Shoe Repair Shop.

Reverend Ehrmann Addresses Weekly Kiwanis Meeting

"Catholic schools are maintained not in the spirit of competition, but to instill religion in the young mind."

Thus spoke Rev. Father Ehrmann, guest speaker at the weekly gathering of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. Ehrmann, of St. Mary's Church, Los Gatos, said it has been the custom of the church for 2000 years to maintain schools side by side with the church.

On his topic, "Catholic Schools and Why They Are Maintained," the speaker stated that the Catholic contention is that religion is part of our daily living and should be treated accordingly.

Other visitors at the session were Jerry Karsten of Modesto, George Leese of San Jose and Thor Waldson of Los Gatos.

Clarence Nelson served as the chairman for the day.

It was announced again that a barbecue will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jewell, 541 Cambrian Drive, August 8, at 6:30 p.m. Members and their wives are invited.

New Officers Of Organist Guild Chapter Outline Season Plans At Dinner Session

Newly-elected officers for the San Jose Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, held a pre-season get-together at the Little Village Inn, Los Gatos, Thursday evening, August 3, at 7 o'clock. After dinner, plans for the 1950-51 season were discussed.

Officers for this season are: John Flynn, Watsonville, dean; Richard Jenson, San Jose, sub-dean; Mrs. Wilma Dyche, Watsonville, secretary; Mrs. Kathleen S. Bergeron, Campbell, treasurer; William Reid, Santa Cruz, bulletin; Mrs. Alice Oltz, Los Gatos, recorder.

The San Jose Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is not composed of San Jose organists only, but has members in Gilroy, Watsonville, Santa Cruz, Los Gatos, Campbell and Palo Alto. At present there are about 50 active members, and a student group at San Jose State College, sponsored by Richard Jenson, professor of organ at the college.

For a number of years, the San Jose Chapter of the AGO has brought to San Jose, world famous organists in concert. The greatest number are from the United States but other countries are sometimes represented; as for instance — last year, England and the year before, France and Belgium. The guild's biggest hope and greatest desire is to see a concert hall arise in San Jose and within its walls a concert organ comparable to the talents of these great organists who come here to play.

It is hoped that any church organists or choir directors living in the localities covered by the San Jose chapter, who are not members, or members who would like to transfer from another chapter, will contact any officer or member of the San Jose chapter of AGO for membership.

PLANNING COMMISSION APPROVES LEGION HALL, MORTUARY ZONING

Applications of the Campbell American Legion Post 596 for rezoning to permit erection of a Legion Hall on Latimer Avenue, and David Rutherford for rezoning of the corner lot on Latimer Avenue and Winchester Road, were approved by the County Planning Commission Wednesday afternoon.

The legion was granted R-4-H multiple dwelling and clubhouse zoning, while Rutherford received C-1-H commercial classification for his lot which will be the site of his future mortuary, now at 101 Winchester Road.

Final action on the matter must come from the County Board of Supervisors which passes on all zoning matters.

Opposing the applications were Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Legg, 226 Esther Avenue, who have submitted a petition bearing names of six property owners in the neighborhood, all of whom opposed the requested zoning on grounds it would establish a precedent for further encroachment of non-residential zoning in the area. A letter supporting the Legion and Rutherford requests, and bearing a larger number of signatures, was also filed last month.

Although the applicants had asked for R-4 and C-1 classifications, the H requirement giving the commission architectural and other controls over the area was appended to satisfy protestants who feared further non-residential uses.

Arthur Norman R. Stoner represented Rutherford, and also urged approval of the Legion request. Both sides were well represented at the hearing.

Members of the Legion building committee will meet next week at the home of the president, Mrs. S. N. Hedegard to continue plans for the hall building. Rutherford said he has no immediate plans for building his mortuary. "There are still a number of preliminaries to be attended to," he added.

PLAN LINE
In other planning commission action on local matters Wednesday, the board approved proposal to establish an official plan line on Santa Clara-Los Gatos Highway between Latimer Avenue and Hacienda Drive, and conducted the first of two public hearings on proposed establishment of the Forty-seventh Unit of the Zoning Plan in the area bounded on the west by the Third Unit, on the north by Scott Street, on the east by the corporate limits of the city of San Jose, and on the south by the fifth unit of the Zoning Plan. Second hearing is on the agenda for September 6.

Campbell merchants will launch their year 'round Friday shopping night in Campbell beginning next Friday, August 11. Merchants, meeting under auspices of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce this week in the Campbell high school little theater, adopted the program as part of their proposed sales promotion plans for the coming year.

Unanimous approval was given at the well-attended meeting to Mrs. Tom Burnett's motion that the merchants establish the shopping night here, and remain open from 6 to 9 p.m. each Friday evening. Ben Strong seconded the motion. Cambrian and San Tomas district merchants will be invited to join this mutual effort whose main objective is to increase the volume of business in the area.

G. Walter Hunt Outlines Valley Water Situation
G. Walter Hunt, engineer for the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation District, told Campbell Rotarians what is being done to relieve the water shortage.

Speaking at the weekly luncheon session of the organization, Hunt outlined specific water needs for both agricultural and domestic uses, and told what percentages of these needs are now available thru present water supply sources. He told what authorities are doing to obtain additional water and gave facts on planning, surveys and efforts now underway to increase the water supply.

President William Maderis presided at the Monday noon session in the Campbell IOOF Hall.

Mrs. Rutherford and sons, Bruce 31, and Warren, 8 months, have just returned from a five-day visit to Dinuba. The trio visited Mrs. Rutherford's sister.

AWARDS
Special awards will be offered Friday evening shoppers each week, these to be chosen by a committee of merchants appointed weekly to handle the events. Drawings would be conducted each Friday evening at 9:15 o'clock to select a winner.

First committee named for the August 11 opener is headed by Joe Fusaro, chairman, with Mario Saia, James Brand and Red Beltz. Recently-appointed secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, Forrest Reese, will assist the group in collecting the $5 contribution from each participating merchant for each of the first two weeks to finance the prize awards and promotional plans, including tickets, posters and advertising. It is expected that the amount will be reduced after the opening weeks.

The above merchants committee of the chamber will meet with Reese Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the J&A Market to hear reports on amount of money collected for the first week's program, type of prizes proposed and promotional details.

Thus, local merchants began consolidation of their efforts to inform the residents of this area that Campbell stores offer shoppers just about everything they need in the way of food, clothing, appliances, services, materials and other merchandise; that prices are as low here as elsewhere, that shopping in Campbell is convenient and saves residents time, fatiguing waiting, gas and trouble.

Secretary-manager Reese will augment work of the merchants committee through his job of coordinating chamber activities, promoting smooth functioning of the committees' work and letting the rest of the country know that Campbell is a good place in which to live, to shop, to work and to establish business.

OFFICE SPACE
Decision of the Chamber of the Chamber of Commerce to establish the paid secretary-manager position found the appointee without a central location for his office. He has been offered space in the new Campbell Press office when it is occupied next month, and will consider this along with other expected offers. His needs include free office space, desk, phone, chair, key to the establishment and a small amount of janitor service. Those who wish to provide this service are asked to notify the board of directors of the chamber.

Noble Grand Velma Cotanche Presides At First Meeting Of Saratoga Lodge

Noble Grand Velma Cotanche presided over her first meeting since the installation on Monday, July 24, at the special session called for Monday in Saratoga IOOF Hall by District Deputy President Hazel Thomsen. Officers and members were present from District 3 and numbered 142.

Mrs. Thomsen instructed those present on the official workings of the lodge and answered all questions on procedure.

Trustee Ida Bruegge of the Children's Home at Gilroy was introduced by the District Deputy President Hazel Thomsen. She instructed the assembly on the methods of entering a child into the home and under what circumstances they were considered eligible. Five trustees serve on the board: Charles M. Turner, Hillister; Charles L. Snyder, San Jose; Helen Troxel, San Mateo; Viola Rice, Los Angeles, and Ida Bruegge, Los Gatos.

There are 52 children in the home at Gilroy at the present time and each year more children are received.

This year as every year, members of the lodge are asked to send jars of canned fruit, jelly and jam to the home. There are a number of empty jars at the home and anyone wishing to fill them with fruit may arrange to have them shipped to either the lodge or to the home of the member. The matron at the home will be glad to assist in the shipment of these empty jars if she is notified.

Mrs. Thomsen also spoke of the president's project for the year, the refurnishing of the lounge at the

DELICIOUS DISHES THAT ADD ZEST TO YOUR DAILY FARE

Coffee Treats for Television Fans

When your favorite television programs are over, good coffee should always be on tap for family and friends to serve with something "special" as a fitting finale to a perfect evening. Any one of the coffee-flavored desserts featured will be just right for late evening refreshments. Easy to prepare and impressive for any occasion are these desserts that combine modern cooking with old-fashioned goodness.

You can serve one or many with fresh, flavorful coffee in a flash. Just measure one teaspoon of soluble coffee (more or less rounded according to strength desired) in a cup, and add freshly boiling water and stir. To make six cups of good coffee, just pour one quart of boiling water on 6 teaspoons of soluble coffee and stir to assure a brew of even strength.

Coffee and Cream Cake is a delicious accompaniment for coffee-flavored ice cream, made simply and quickly by blending 1 tablespoon of soluble coffee with one package of ice cream mix. This is a neat trick that wins compliments every time. For an extra special evening, surprise your guests with Marshmallow Supreme, a simple dessert with a sophisticated flavor of fresh coffee.

COFFEE AND CREAM CAKE

Make your favorite plain cake mix recipe and then use:

COFFEE CREAM FILLING
6 tablespoons sugar 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
3 tablespoons flour 1 cup scalded milk
1/4 teaspoon salt 1 egg yolk

Combine first 4 ingredients in a small pan. Stir in milk. Cook until thickened. Place over hot water, cook about 15 minutes.

Beat egg yolk slightly, add a little of the hot mixture and return to pan. Cook 2 minutes. Add butter, cool thoroughly.

COFFEE ICING

1 tablespoon butter 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
1 egg yolk 1 tablespoon milk

Mix butter and egg yolk. Add sifted confectioners' sugar which has been mixed with soluble coffee. Gradually add milk, beating all the while, until a smooth, creamy consistency is reached.

MARSHMALLOW SUPREME

1/2 lb. marshmallows 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup sherry 1/2 cups undiluted evaporated milk
1 envelope unflavored gelatin 2 teaspoons soluble coffee
1/4 cup cold water 1/2 cup hot water, toasted almonds

Cut marshmallows in quarters and let them stand overnight in sherry. In top of a double-boiler, dissolve gelatin in cold water. Cook for 10 min., stirring constantly. Dissolve soluble coffee in hot water. Add to the milk mixture. Fold in marshmallows. Pour into one quart mold rinsed with cold water and chill. Unmold, garnish with whipped cream, cherries and almonds.

Yield: 6-8 servings.

FRENCH ONION SOUP

Good soup is always in season but it is especially so in crisp cold weather. Soup making today is not the tedious task it was in Grandmother's time. Cooking with pressure sauce pans and using frozen or canned mixed vegetables make it a fast and pleasant job. There are also many packaged mixes and canned soups available. These may be prepared as directed on the label, or may be varied by the addition of other foods or seasonings.

Serve thin light soup to heighten appetite and improve digestion before a heavy meal. Thick hearty soup, toasted sandwiches and a tossed green salad make an appetizing and nutritious lunch or supper.

The soup that rates "tops" with men is French onion soup, and you don't have to be a French chef to prepare it.

FRENCH ONION SOUP

5 cups thinly sliced onions
1 cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 cup bouillon or soup stock
1 tablespoon flour

Melt butter in butter or margarine. Add onions and sauté until golden brown. Add salt and sugar. Add bouillon or soup stock and flour. Stir well. Simmer for 10 minutes. Add 1 cup of sliced onions. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese.

Here's how to add variety and interest to canned soups:

Drop dumplings into steaming vegetable-beef soup. Cover and steam for 15 minutes.

Roll midget meat balls in flour, brown and drop into vegetable soup just before serving.

Mix one can of cream of spinach soup with one can of mushroom soup. Heat and top with dash of nutmeg.

For a Chinese touch, add a well beaten egg to hot consommé. Stir rapidly for two minutes. Serve immediately.

Drop cheese dumplings into hot tomato soup. Serve with a green salad for a quick lunch.

For a bit of color and texture contrast, add 3/4 cup grated raw carrot to green pea soup.

Blend tomato soup with clam chowder. Heat and serve with oyster crackers.

Combine one can of cream-style corn and one can of cream of chicken soup for hearty corn chowder.

Garnish black bean soup with thin slices of lemon and hard-cooked egg. Serve with garlic-battered French bread, toasted.

For an excellent supper soup, combine a can of condensed vegetable soup with 1 1/2 cups of milk. Add 1 cup of sliced Vienna sausages. Serve steaming hot with pumpkin chicken bread.

The apple has come a long way since the day it caused such havoc in Eden. It is more tempting than ever, for it is much more versatile—countless ways to serve this delectable fruit have been dreamed up by modern Eves.

Other foods, too, combine with apples to make mouth-watering desserts such as the three given here. One combines tapioca with apples in a new version of an old dessert favorite; another uses crisp cereal flakes to complement the flavor of the fruit and to provide a crunchy topping. In the third recipe, shredded coconut is folded into orange-flavored whipped cream and served with baked apples to make a glamorous looking dessert with a deliciously subtle flavor. Yes, the apple has come a long way!

Deep-Dish Apple Tapioca

3 cups hot water 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
2 tablespoons lemon juice 1 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 cups sliced tart apples 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup quick-cooking tapioca 3 tablespoons butter

Add water and lemon juice to apples in greased baking dish. Bake, covered, in moderate oven (375° F.) 15 minutes, or until apples are partially cooked. Add remaining ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Continue baking 30 minutes. Stir well after 5 minutes, then stir every 10 minutes, and again when removing from oven. Serve warm or cold with Butterscotch Hard Sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Butterscotch Hard Sauce: Cream 1/4 cup butter or margarine thoroughly. Add 1/2 cup light brown sugar (firmly packed) gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add 1 tablespoon cream and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and beat well. Makes 1 cup sauce.

Coconut Baked Apples

6 tart apples, cored
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup shredded coconut
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup orange extract or
1/2 cup cream, whipped

Place apples in baking dish, add water, and sprinkle with 1/4 cup sugar. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 45 minutes, or until done. Cool.

Fold 1/2 cup of the coconut, 2 tablespoons sugar, and orange extract into whipped cream. Top apples with the mixture. Garnish with remaining coconut. Chill before serving.

Makes 6 servings.

Apple Crisp

3 cups thinly sliced apples to 4 tablespoons sugar or honey
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
3 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup raisins
1 1/2 cups bran flakes, 40% bran flakes, wheat flakes, or 1 cup corn flakes, crushed

Mix together apples, sugar, melted butter, salt, and cinnamon. Turn into deep 8-inch baking dish. Cream butter; add sugar and flour and mix well. Add cereal and mix together. Spread over apples. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes. Remove cover and continue baking 15 minutes longer, or until apples are tender. Serve warm with cream. Makes 4 servings.

ESCALLOPED NOODLES AND TUNA

Church or club suppers can be simple when each pair of "willing hands" knows what to do. Here are some suggestions which will help the next time you are asked to be chairman.

In planning the menu, consider the age, sex and occupation of the group. Check the facilities and equipment available for preparing and serving the food. Plan the menu around the main dish, which usually is the most expensive. In-season foods save money and are of better quality.

Try to have contrasts in flavor, texture and color. Use only tested recipes and consult your market to be sure all foods are available.

These two main-dish recipes have proved to be popular at many church suppers:

ESCALLOPED NOODLES AND TUNA

3 1/4 lbs. noodles
1 lb. shortening
2 cups flour
2 gallons milk
1 1/2 tablespoons salt
1 tablespoon celery salt
12 No. 1/4 flat cans tuna
2 dozen hard-cooked eggs
1 1/2 quarts bread crumbs
1 cup melted margarine

Cook noodles in rapidly boiling water until tender, about 20 minutes. Drain. Make white sauce: Melt shortening, blend in flour, add

6 lbs. lean pork or veal, cut in cubes
3/4 cup fat
2 tablespoons salt
4 1/2 quarts celery, cut in small strips

3 8-oz. cans sliced mushrooms
12 cups or 6 cans bean sprouts
3 quarts onions, sliced
1 cup Chinese sauce
2 1/2 quarts water or stock
2 cups flour
9 quarts fried noodles or 3 pounds cooked rice

Brown meat in fat. Season with salt. Add one quart of the water and simmer until meat is almost tender. Add celery, mushrooms, bean sprouts, onions, Chinese sauce and remaining water. Cook until vegetables are tender, but still crisp. Thicken stock with flour, mixed first with small amount of cold water. Serve as Chow Mein with noodles, or as Chop Suey with rice. Serves 50; approximately 3/4 cup per serving.

More About Judge Blaine

habit of sentencing young law violators to read inspirational literature. When the story was first published years ago, it was considered so sensational that the Associated Press picked it up and it was reprinted in the Christian Science Monitor, he commented.

"I have never sentenced anyone to reading inspirational literature. To do so would be contrary to my principles." The whole story is a joke on the American attitude toward education, that education be compulsory. Alexander Wolcott phrased it correctly when he said, "We call it education in the classics when we take students by the scruff of the neck and rub their reluctant noses in it."

"I have tried to interest some of the young people in inspirational literature. My entire educational idea is to introduce good literature into the schools in such a way that the students would be interested in it. I never went to high school, but I was interested in reading, so I fell in love with good books."

COMMON SENSE
"In a few instances I have given out copies of Emerson. One boy was sent to me, and he was believed to be hopeless. I talked to him. Before he left this court, the boy was in tears. I heard more common sense in 10 minutes in that court than in all my life," the boy told a companion later. "That is the difference," Judge Blaine concluded, "I got under his skin, to him, just by talking to him. It's the difference between hammering and common sense."

Walsh said he has been looking for an office location in the center of town, preparatory to assuming

Summer Music Students Visit Shop Of S. J. Violin Maker Alfred Lanini

Students of the Campbell Summer Music School have some new insight on the construction and tonal characteristics of their instruments as a result of a recent trip. About 30 pupils of the school visited the shop of a San Jose violin maker and were given a demonstration of the Stroboscope at the San Jose State College.

Alfred Lanini, San Jose violin maker, showed the students the kinds of wood used in violins, how it is carved and fitted together. He also gave them a closeup view of a genuine Stradivarius violin.

Wayne Sorensen, woodwind instructor at the College, explained the stroboscope which analyzes the characteristics of instruments by identifying the harmonics present in the tone. It is also used to check instruments for out of tune.

The tour was conducted by Mr. Richard Gordon, director of the Summer Music School at Campbell.

Faculty Night, Doll Show Highlight Moreland Activity

A double-barrel of entertainment and fun has been arranged for August 19, by directors of the Moreland Summer Recreation Program.

Augmenting "Faculty Night," a competently-judged Doll Show will feature the Saturday night festivities.

All the teachers of the Moreland school have been invited. A huge square dance session has been tentatively arranged. Mrs. Grace Klug of the faculty taught the art of dancing at an Arthur Murray School of Dancing for several years. It is expected that her teaching ability will be put to practical use.

The doll show, to be held in the Moreland cafeteria, will be judged by a group of able judges, under chairman Gwen Robertson. Mrs. Clarence Barr is chairman of the ribbon committee, with Mrs. Jane Lagiss acting as general chairman. Miss Julia Hoagland is in charge of decorations.

A corresponding hobby show will be held for the boys. Ribbons and a grand prize will be offered in both shows.

Tentative plans for a "pet parade" were announced by Mrs. J. Lagiss, publicity chairman. All

Saratoga Avenue Commercial Zone Petitions Studied

Two requests for commercial zoning in subdivision tracts on Saratoga Avenue were taken under advisement by the County Planning Commission Wednesday following second public hearing, and a third more recent application was assigned another hearing on September 6.

Among neighboring businessmen and residents supporting petition of Fred and Maude Smith were E. Renzel, S. F. Ridgely, and C. S. Fleming. Two Saratogans, Virgil Campbell, market operator, and Paul W. Crawford, president of the Saratoga Chamber of Commerce, opposed issuance of the zoning permit.

The Smiths sought the reclassification for property on the west side of Paseo Presada and west terminus of Paseo Lado, part of lot 1 of the tract which is located.

children are requested to sign up August 12 between 4:00-7:00 p.m. If interest is high and enough participants respond the parade will be held the evening of registration.

As usual, a pot-luck dinner will be offered at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow evening. Following the meal hour, movies will be shown. They are a featurette, "Oregon Trail," in color and "Mission Trails."

Tomorrow afternoon, parents are urged to bring their children to the playground at 4 o'clock. Organized athletic activities are conducted under the directorship of Mr. Robert Edminster.

Co-chairmen for tomorrow's festivities are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Speno.

Rebekah Rummage Sale Set; Theta Rho Night Aug. 15

Noble Grand Helen Wrigglesworth conducted her first meeting as the Ada Rebekah Lodge, 223, convened Tuesday at the IOOF Hall.

She was assisted by Vice Grand Melba Penhall.

Mrs. Wrigglesworth reported on the district school of instructions held in Saratoga, July 31.

Final plans were made for the lodge's rummage sale to be held August 18-19 at the IOOF Hall. All members were asked to bring rummage to the next lodge meeting, August 15.

On the entertainment agenda, the members held a "Fortune Night." A bowl of fortunes was placed on a table, and each member drew one card and read the prognostications aloud. Watermel-

Paul Gallagher supported Roy Kosich's petition for C-1 zoning in the same Sosis Farm subdivision on property at the westerly side of Saratoga Avenue south of Quito Road, part of Lot 21. Both Kosich's and the Smiths' property are zoned for single family residential.

Decision on these two may be rendered August 16 by the planners.

Second hearing on petition of Philip S. Sanfilippo and Lionel J. Tilson for reclassification to C-1 of property between Saratoga Avenue and Quito Road, south of the intersection of the two streets, is to be conducted at the September 6 Planning Commission session. The site is north of Paseo Cerro in El Quito Park subdivision.

Chairman for the evening was Mrs. Bonnie Silberbauer.

It will be "Theta Rho" night at the next session. The junior branch of the Rebekahs will present a program.

"So long, Joe—see you Monday." Sure, you take it for granted that you'll be back on the job bright and early Monday morning. Always have been—well, 'most always. There was the time on a picnic when you fell off a rock and sprained your ankle—and oh, yes, the auto accident that put your arm in a sling for a couple of weeks; but nothing really too serious.

Don't count on it! Every year 32,000 workers are killed, over 2,500,000 injured in off-the-job accidents. That's almost double the number of deaths caused by accidents on the job.

It's great to have fun. Relax and enjoy yourself over the week end, holiday or vacation. But remember—somewhere during every two-day holiday, 175 workers will be accidentally killed and 15,000 injured, many maimed for life. One of these could be you. A large part of these casualties will be caused by traffic accidents, but drownings, falls, firearms, poisons, burns and other accidents will help to swell the total.

Coming back Monday? The chances are all in your favor—if you just use plain common sense in what you do and how you do it over the week end.

Think safely on-the-job, off-the-job, always!

Tract Restrictions To Be Studied In Novitiate Request

Although members of the County Planning Commission expressed themselves favorably on application of the Sisters of Presentation to establish and maintain a novitiate in Vasona Heights, the application was taken under advisement for study of tract restrictions, following public hearing on the request Wednesday afternoon.

The Catholic order would locate its novitiate on the Joseph Shaw estate between Wildway and the Southern Pacific right-of-way, being part of Vasona Heights and Buena Vista Heights tracts.

NEIGHBORS OPPOSED

Attorney William L. Mattenberger represented a large group of neighboring property owners who protested the order's application. The attorney pointed out that the Vasona Heights, in which all but 60 feet of the property lies, is restricted to residential use and that establishment of the novitiate would depreciate property values in the area.

Representing the order was L. J. Vetter, who asked immediate approval of the application for use permit, so the sisters could go ahead with purchase plans. He claimed other Catholic orders have been operating similar institutions in California for over 100 years, and that property values had not been reduced.

Bronzich Spots Empty Diesel Trailer Stolen With 28,600 Pounds Of Coffee

Saratoga Township Constable-elect Chris Bronzich located an empty semi-diesel trailer which had been stolen loaded with 28,600 pounds of coffee from Plant Brothers in San Francisco. The private police patrol operator discovered the van on Prospect and Miller Roads in Saratoga Sunday night.

Four San Jose men were being held yesterday for investigation in connection with the theft. The semi-diesel trailer section was stolen early Saturday in San Francisco, while it contained 1200 cases of coffee valued at $23,000.

Lads uncovered by police and sheriff's deputies led to one of the three suspects and the other three were arrested later. The coffee was found in a Sunol district warehouse which had apparently been rented in advance for that purpose.

Suspect Sam Saso, 36, grocery store operator, is being held at Santa Clara County Jail. The other three, Victor Suglio, 35, former truck line operator, George Alario, 38, truck driver, and Louis Mario, 44, former fur salesman, have been turned over to San Francisco police. According to reports, the four have denied knowledge of the theft.

The coffee in the abandoned warehouse was to be returned to San Francisco yesterday by Folger Coffee workers.

According to San Francisco police, Alario is former owner of the truck which moved the coffee to San Jose and has admitted being the man who moved the vehicle from its location on a San Francisco street. They charge that Alario and Suglio stole the load of coffee and that Saso allegedly bought it for $1000. Mario is reported to have been slated to resell the coffee for $15,000.

Ed Lee To Head Local Delegation To Legion Conclave

American Legion Post 595 will send three delegates from Campbell to the 1950 national convention set for Los Angeles, October 9 through 12. Commander Ed Lee will head the delegate group which will include Adjutant Maurice Burke and Marvin Wittler, member.

Convention Director Ed W. Bolt announced this week the conclave will be the most important in the organization's history because of the current world crisis. He expects close to 100,000 Legionnaires and their families to participate in the meeting which will have as its major item of business the containment of communism through the world.

Bolt urged that all Legionnaires planning to attend, register immediately to insure adequate housing. Those signing up before September 1 will receive preference, he said.

In addition, early registration will entitle convention-going Legionnaires to reserved seating at all major Legion events and other special considerations.

Among events scheduled are the colorful memorial services in the world-famous Hollywood Bowl, a lavish motion picture pageant in the Los Angeles Coliseum, and the finals of the Drum and Bugle Corps contest.

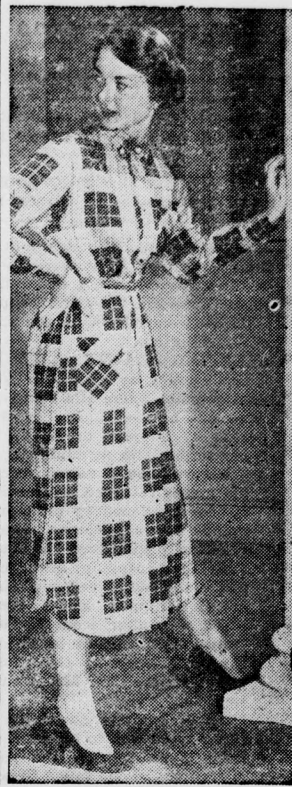

Registration blanks may be obtained through the local post.

Dr. H. C. Wilson To Give Sermon

"Making the Most of Life" will be the title of the sermon delivered at the Methodist Church at the Sunday morning worship service by Dr. Harry C. Wilson. Dr. Wilson has recently retired from the Minnesota Conference of the Methodist church and has been minister and director of religious education of some of the largest churches of the denomination. At the time of his retirement, Dr. Wilson was a member of the Board of Church School Publications. This is the first time he has preached in Campbell.

Mrs. Doris Cowdry Brainard will be the soloist for the service; her special number to be "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer" by Fillmore. Mrs. Beulah Y. Herbold will play the organ.

The Sunday School will meet at the regular time, 9:45 a.m., with classes provided for all ages. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. in the social hall.

The shirttail invades the dress field! A blue ribbon winner selected from a group of over 1000 entries in the California State Fair's Apparel and Textile Exposition is this "shirttail dress" with its button tabbed collar. A Franklin Phillips design, it is made of printed cotton flannel. Pictured is Doris Anovich, of San Francisco, one of the lovely professional models who will appear nightly in the Pageant of Fashions to be presented at the California State Fair, August 31 through September 10. The Fashion Pageant will display the 141 award winners selected in competition involving 1040 of the best of California designed men's women's and children's wear.

Hunt Employees To Have Day At Local Blood Bank

Hunt's Cannery day at the blood bank will be observed Thursday, August 31, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The mobile unit of the Regional Blood Center will be stationed at the Campbell Methodist Church parish house on Campbell Avenue.

All Hunt's employees are requested to sign up with the blood bank representative who will be at the cannery prior to the visit date, or they may sign with Mr. Putnam, Hunt Foods, Inc., personnel manager here.

Campbell blood bank committee chairman J. F. Budd Levenberg expressed thanks for Putnam's courtesy and cooperation in arranging for this visit, and urged employees to donate blood toward building up plant credit at the blood center.

While the Nation, tense with anxiety, prays and hopes that the Korean explosion will not bring war tumbling about its ears, elections and politics have been relegated to the background.

California, like the Nation, waits poised to switch from a peace to a war footing.

While the zing and import that was a part of the June 6 primary is gone from the November 7 General Election, there are, however, decisions having a bearing on the stability and soundness of the state that must be made—and, because of the precarious world situation, become even more important.

Public officials must be elected who can steer a sound course. The fate of the State cannot be left to the inept.

Decisions will have to be made, too, on 11 ballot issues in November.

There are three initiative constitutional amendments to be voted upon which have been qualified for the ballot by circulation of petitions. Proposition 1, if passed by the voters, would repeal the personal property tax, taking an estimated $200,000,000 in revenue from cities, counties and State. Fiscal experts predict that if the tax (paid principally by warehouse owners with large inventories) is repealed, various levels of government will make up for the loss by a five percent sales tax, a vastly increased real property tax rate on home owners, or a combination of both.

A second initiative—Proposition 6—if approved, would throw the state wide open to all-out gambling under the control of a self-appointed five-man commission of promoters.

RIGHT TO VOTE
The third initiative—Proposition 10—if passed, would give the people the right to vote on whether or not they want public housing. In other words, before the State or any city or county could accept federal funds for public housing, the people in the locality involved would vote approval.

8 LEGISLATIVE MEASURES
In addition to the three initiatives, eight measures will be on the ballot by action of the 1949 Legislature: Proposition 2 prohibits naming an individual to office by constitutional amendment; Proposition 3 reorganizes the Inferior Court system; Proposition 4 concerns county residence requirements for voting; Proposition 5 permits certain other public employment by legislators; Proposition 7 prohibits denial of admission of blind persons to chiropractic schools; Proposition 8 permits salary increases for public officials while in office; Proposition 9 provides certain limited exemptions from civil service; and Proposition 11 concerns land law reform.

Single Program For Water Urged At Grange Meet

Cupertino Grange 739 met at the Odd Fellows Hall for their regular semi-monthly session on Friday, July 28, with Master Dwight F. Sheffer presiding. A number of visitors were present from Sunnyvale, San Jose and Almaden Granges.

On the lecturer's program, Vince S. Garrod gave a very interesting and informative talk on soil and water conservation, stressing the advantages of the sprinkler system of irrigation over other methods. He also urged that the Granges and other organizations get behind one water program for the valley instead of the nine or ten programs now being pushed.

During the business session, Col. George Ames and Karl Friedrich spoke on indigent relief, and a discussion of the possibility of county property on Stevens Creek being developed as a park, proved very interesting.

It was announced that Pomona Grange will meet at Mt. Pleasant School Saturday afternoon and evening, August 5, and that a grange luncheon will be held September 6 at the State Fair in honor of Grange day.

Next Friday, August 11, will be men's night at the grange.

Luther C. Propst Dies Shortly After Moving Here

Propst was a member of Mountain View Lodge 194, F&AM, and Scottish Rite bodies of San Jose.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. today from Spangler Mortuary, Mountain View, under auspices of the Mountain View Masonic Lodge. Interment was at Alta Mesa Cemetery.

Surviving the realtor are his widow, Monte; children, Virginia and Jay Propst, all of Campbell; brothers Ed and Glen Propst of Klamath Falls, Oregon; Claude Propst, Portland, Oregon; Roy N. Propst, San Francisco, and sister, Mrs. Thomas Miller, Redding.

PROOF FOR SURE . . . if any of the die-hards need further convincing as to the prowess of the Campbell Softball League, let them cast a doubtful eye at the list of eight teams entered in the annual District Tournament which starts tomorrow night at Sunnyvale's City Park.

Out of the eight-team entry, four clubs (one-half) play or have played in the Campbell League or on the local diamond.

Currently fighting for second-half championship in the Campbell loop are Leon Terrys, Maderis Market, and 5 Spot. The fourth team is the potent Western Gravel, defending district and state champions. After a spell of local play, the gravelmen recently picked up their chips and transferred their home games elsewhere.

Call it the crux of the argument, coup de grace, but followers of big-time softball have installed Leon Terrys and Western Gravel as pre-tourney favorites. And furthermore, if I am elected . . .

HURRAH FOR OUR SIDE . . . With local softball attendance and over-all interest at a rock-bottom level, something had to be done to stimulate enthusiasm throughout the community. The majority of parents and older folks, while eager to a degree, have not responded to the brand of softball offered. For the safety and future survival of the game, as a competitive league sport, interest had to be aroused elsewhere.

In the Campbell Junior Softball League, we believe the answer lies: barely breathing now, but soon to evolve into the healthiest factor in brightening the softball scheme.

The youthful loop, in its first year, features kids up to 17 years of age. What they lack in skill and know-how, is more than rectified by an eagerness and spirit seldom found in senior divisions.

Once the younger set becomes excited over any given program, one can rest well assured of a successful outcome, particularly in softball.

Down in the valley, through Fresno and Bakersfield, and even in the mid-west, senior softball is one of the more successful sporting enterprises. Crowds equal and all times surpass attendance figures at competing minor league baseball games.

Why? It is strictly an assumption, and an unsteady platform of reasoning, but junior and Class B softball leagues flourish successfully in the aforementioned locales.

Thus, interest and love for the game is stimulated at an early age; hence the resulting growth and progress of softball as a whole.

As for our community—we shall wait and see.

HE'LL DO . . . It is true that a strikeout artist among softball pitchers is no rarity. But in Dutch Johnson, Mac's Market chucker in the local softball loop, we have one of the better hillsmen in the county, if not in the state and elsewhere.

Thus far in four games on the mound in second-half competition, Johnson has pitched 25 innings of shutout ball, including a four-inning game on Tuesday.

Out of the 153 putouts registered, he has accounted for 51 via the strikeout route. That averages a little better than two strikeouts per inning. If a man were to do any better, he would be accused of hypnotic proclivities.

During his pitching tenure thus far, Johnson has granted only eight hits; a safety to every 19th batter. He is generous to a fault, but for sure.

HEIGHT O' SUMTHIN' . . . We don't know if the American Legion softballers of the "B" League de-

Two Scouts Return From Jamboree With Tales Of Travel Adventures

Two Campbell Boy Scouts recently returned from a month's country-wide jaunt that was highlighted by the Second National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa.

Gilbert Johnson and Ned Gault were part of a 19-scout contingent from Santa Clara County Council that participated in events, met noted personalities, and saw sights that will remain etched in their memories as part of fond boyhood adventures.

Both boys displayed remarkable maturity and understanding when interviewed. When asked what impressed him most on the entire trip, Gilbert answered that the opportunity afforded so many scouts (47,000 present at the Jamboree) from the States and numerous foreign nations to get together and exchange ideas and mannerisms, both social and educational, struck him as being the most noteworthy.

HISTORICAL REVIEW
The entire congregation of Boy Scouts convened three times, the boys said. At all three gatherings, the scouts witnessed historical pageants presented by a local social group.

The initial pageant depicted Geo. Washington spending that memorable winter at Valley Forge. Next presentation was the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The final scene portrayed the growth of U.S. territories throughout the continent.

Typical of American sports-loving youth, Gilbert placed high on his list of thrills the major-league baseball game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Philadelphia Phillies. New York with its tall skyscrapers, bustling crowds and ever-present automatons also ranked in Gil's recollections, not to mention the esteemed visits and talks by President Harry Truman and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower at the Jamboree festivities.

Like many of their astute compatriots, the local lads instigated and successfully operated small businesses aboard the special Boy Scout train. By charging 5 cents per shine the boys were able to net $5 from their business.

"I never knew there were that many scouts in the world," exclaimed Ned when asked his first impression of the Jamboree. The gigantic task of smoothly running the mass convention can be graphically illustrated by realizing that over $2,000,000 worth of non-combat gear was borrowed from the Army for the seven-day affair. Through the generosity of the military the Jamboree members secured GI tents, water-bags, jeeps and other necessary equipment.

It has been a foregone conclusion that the boys will serve meritorious lineage or if their opponents qualify for a lower rating. Anyhow, the legionnaires have scored a total of 46 runs in the last three league games. A phenomenal number, regardless of competition, be it Class A or Triple Z. And especially in softball.

Against Jeffers, the tally-happy ones countered 19 times. They were thoroughly warmed up to this pleasant task when they met the Junior Chamber of Commerce the following week.

Aided greatly by the spirit of friendship and amiability so typical of all commerce-conscious men, the veterans could only muster 23 runs. After the 23rd counter checked across the plate, the game had to be held up for ten minutes while the ground crew (three cobblers) re-soled the rubber on home plate. By that time, the Legion refused to continue the contest lest the directors go bankrupt buying new home plates.

It was a different story when the power-laden legion club met the VFW. Whereas the two previous run-marathons were held against the cellar dwellers, the VFW congregation was vying for first place. The final score was 4 to 1 with the Legionnaires on the long end.

sion that Boy Scouts engage in all their activities, be it work, play, or otherwise, with vim and enthusiasm. Cite the "peaceful" experience Ned encountered in the state of Washington.

SLEEPING BEAUTY
One evening he fell asleep in his Seattle hotel room. His roommates were out at the time. Any tired person is subject to sleep, but Ned overdid it in no small degree.

He was sound asleep when his mates returned and could not be awakened by their demands for admittance. They practically splintered the door with loud rapping but Ned peacefully slumbered on. The corridor-trapped scouts even lifted a smaller scout to the transom from where he threw sundry articles at the prostrate form. But Mr. Gault slept on.

Next on the agenda of the attacking force was to have the telephone operator ring the room. But even the phone failed to bother Ned's slumber. By now the scouts resumed louder and longer knocking in vivid protest to the one-man "freeze-out." All they accomplished was to arouse every tenant in surrounding rooms.

When it appeared that a certain group of scouts would have to pitch camp in the middle of a hotel hallway, the boys from the adjoining room returned. It was discovered that an inner door connected the two rooms. It was opened in nothing flat. The tired one (Continued on next page)

LOCAL SOFTBALL NEWS

"A" LEAGUE—July 28
Davenport Electric remained unbeaten in second-half play as they defeated a portion of the Purple Knights, 13 to 5.

Evidently it was a night out for some of the Knights for only eight of them were available. And as fortunes of softball will have it, many hits fell into the position of a man who wasn't there. The current-crew took full advantage of the trivial fact that their opponents had only two outfielders.

Billy Wilson, jack-of-all-sports, led the victors with three hits. The vanquished drew first blood by scoring two runs in the initial inning. But then the dawn broke, because the electricians lit their way for the winning runs in the ensuing frames while the Purple Ones slud good-night and acted accordingly.

Frank Lico batted in three of the five tallies for the losers. He got a double and single in three trips.

"B" LEAGUE
In a battle for basement priority, the Junior Chamber of Commerce evicted themselves by submerging Jeffers, 9 to 2.

Both teams entered the contest sporting identical records of no wins as against two losses.

Additional information is not available. Not that the game does not merit proper coverage, but the simple fact is that no one connected with the game was available for information. At least six people affiliated with either team were contacted but the fruits of conversation are plainly seen . . . Nothing, just the score.

"A" LEAGUE, MONDAY
An ill wind blows no good to everyone especially ballplayers cavorting on a sandy field.

Both games were cancelled due to high winds. Fifth? If the winds were any higher, they would be arrested for disturbing the solemnity near the pearly gates.

The "A" league game between 5 Spot and Purple Knights will be played at an undecided date. Jeffers will meet VFW tomorrow evening in "B" division play.

"A" LEAGUE TUESDAY
Monotony will drive anyone berserk, especially teams playing Mac's Market with Dutch Johnson on the mound.

In an abbreviated tilt, Johnson posted his fourth shutout in as many starts as the marketeers walloped the Saratoga Merchants, 16 to 0.

With the score 10 to 0 going into the fifth frame, the winners tallied six more runs to clinch the game. At this point no further play ensued. With Johnson hurling, it evidently appeared as a lost cause to the Saratogans.

In the four innings he pitched, Johnson allowed two hits and struck out 10. The two batters that escaped the strike out routine were retired on a ground ball to third and a popout to the first sacker.

Mac's Market now roasts atop the league with four wins and no losses. The merchants are now co-holders of last place.

"B" LEAGUE
Behind the steady four-hit pitching of Neiderfer, Moorpark dumped the Farmers' Union, 4 to 1, in a fast-moving game.

Off to a slow start, Neiderfer allowed two hits and one run in the opening frame. From then on he was boss man over the union, giving up two additional bingles the rest of the game.

The victors scored once in the first two innings. The tilt remained close until the sixth, when Moorpark tallied their final pair of runs on three hits and a couple of long fly balls. Winters and Lawndria, second and first sackers for Moorpark,

Recreation Setup Offers Kids Varied Summer Pleasures

More than 125 students participated in the first four swimming classes held by the Campbell Elementary School Summer Recreation program.

Another set of four classes start this week with approximately the same number of students enrolled. Final group takes to the water August 21.

Neil Royer, director of the program, said registration procedure is being completed now at the Campbell, Moorpark and San Tomas schools.

The daily recreation program installed in the three district schools has more than 300 youngsters participating in vacation activities.

On the educational agenda, Royer reports, fifty children from the San Tomas school visited the Science laboratories at San Jose State college where they were guided on a tour of the many animal and bird exhibits.

Throughout the summer recreation festivities, the youth of this district engage in woodwork, story-telling, arts and crafts, and sundry athletic contests. Daily, various educational and entertaining movies are screened.

Royer announced that all children of grammar school age are welcome at either of the three schools. They will be allowed to participate in any activity or hobby that appeals to them individually.

led both teams at the plate, getting two for three each.

"A" LEAGUE (open date)
"B" LEAGUE WEDNESDAY

In a game indicative of barnyard golf, Bettencourts Market outlasted the Oddfellows, 11 to 7.

The marketmen locked the door before the fellows got away by scoring seven runs on six hits in the opening stages of the game. In the third and fourth frames they added four more tallies to assure a successful evening.

Oddfellows picked two runs in the first and four in the third, but after that they faded slowly but definitely.

In all, Bettencourts collected 11 hits while the Oddfellows gathered seven safeties. A hit per run for both teams. With all the fortunate numbers of chance appearing, it is a wonder that someone lost.

"A" LEAGUE THURSDAY

One of the most startling upsets of the season occurred last night when the 7:30 Club, long doormats for all, rose and convincingly trimmed Maderis Market, 6 to 0 behind the brilliant pitching of Olivera.

Excluding yesterday's win, the clubbers had won only one game all season. But last night they looked like anything but a losing team.

They played errorless ball behind Olivera who allowed three widely scattered hits. He struck out three and walked but one.

The victors were inspired from the start, scoring three times in the opening frame and adding two more runs in the second. They picked up an unnecessary tally in the fifth on an error, hit and walk.

"B" LEAGUE
Evidently upsets were the trend of the evening. The American Legion team, who have been beating almost everyone by football scores, ran into a brick wall in the person of the Netops. The Netoppers proceeded to knock the vets from the undefeated ranks by a score of

Scarcity Of Hits, Many Walks Mark Opening Of Junior Softball League

Extra-inning games, tight pitching, and a rarity of basehits featured the opening of the Campbell Junior Softball League this week. This six team loop, playing three games per week, had every squad in action with the closeness of scores indicating well-played ball and rugged competition in the offing.

In the only free-slugging game of the week, Earl's Barber Shop clipped Burbank Recreation by the tune of 14 to 7 Saturday evening. The northeastern ten played good ball despite losing. They were formulated as a unit a few days prior to league play.

The Barbers, formerly Lou Acklin's played capable ball. Judging from their practice games, the shave-and-lather clan will be no one's soft soap. Campbell Grammar School edged out Kiwanis, 3 to 2 Monday afternoon, in the closest of games that saw a pitchers' battle royal between Kiwanis' Schumway and B. Hill of the school.

Each chucker allowed only one hit and a few untimely errors marked the difference in the outcome.

Campbell scored twice in the first frame on three walks, an error, and their only hit, a single by Beth. The "K" boys retaliated immediately, pushing across the tying runs in the second on four walks and two base-advancing flyballs.

The game remained knotted until the eighth inning. Every-one was prepared to witness a long pitching tussle, when the end came with startling suddenness. Buck led off the first pitch he broke for second. The throw from catcher was erratic and hurried into the outfield. Before the ball could be retrieved, Buck bounced around third to counter the winning run.

Kiwanis flubbed a golden opportunity in the seventh. They loaded the bases with none out, but Hill rose to the occasion by fanning the next two men and getting the final out on an infield fly.

In another hectic contest, Jones Service defeated the Jr. Oddfellows by the score of 9 to 7.

Despite 16 runs crossing the plate, the combined hitting total for both clubs was only three hits. The winners got two of the safeties. Thus it is evident that walks, walks, and more walks contributed to both causes.

The service squad scored three runs in the third and never were headed. They added five more in the fifth on both their hits plus the generosity of two errors.

More About Two Scouts Return

still slept after his roommate showered him with a glass of water. According to Ned, he knew nothing about the fiasco until he awoke the following morning.

His only comment was: "The sign on the door read, 'Lock door before going to sleep.' So I did." Wouldn't it have been much simpler if someone had thought of securing a key from the clerk?

JAMBOREE ACTIVITIES
While at the Jamboree the boys participated in opening-night festivities. Each boy was given a candle which was lit simultaneously. This, so the scouts related, was to represent a living symbol of the "Torch of Liberty."

Gilbert and Ned belonged to Troop 17, a composite of local unit delegates. For final ceremonies, the troop was selected as the best of the section, which included various groups from most of the western states.

Each scout from Troop 17 was given a flag of a foreign country, which he carried in the final parade. As color-bearer, Ned carried the flag of Argentina and Gil carried the Cuban colors.

During the stay at Valley Forge, the scouts were responsible for their immediate area and all the domestic chores. All had a crack at being head chef.

The entire troop rotated about a set number of duties. Two days found one group cleaning the camp site. The ensuing two days they took charge of fire detail. The third two-day chore was left for cooking. That left one day free from camp obligations.

Ned declares by all that is honest that he gained four pounds during the week-long Jamboree. He also claims to have grown 14 inches during the entire 30-day tour.

Both boys elaborated on great length their tour through the auto factory in Detroit. They said the assembly line was fascinating to watch as bits of metal and pieces of accessories merged together to form a new modern automobile.

NO INDIAN GIVERS
To a stranger not familiar with the unusual abilities of Scouts, the shrewd trading talent displayed by the lads is amazing. Take the case of the Texas troop who painted pine cones white and then traced them off as extra-large porcupine eggs to some unsuspecting soul from the east.

The Campbell traders fared satisfactorily in their own right as far as this art of swapping was concerned.

Ned traded his automatic toothbrush for a piece of 287,000-volt transformer cable from Boulder Dam. He figured that he can get one of these brush gadgets anytime but the cable cannot be obtained every day—to each his own.

Gilbert remained conservative in his dealings. He dealt exclusively in pennant swapping. After traveling through 26 states, plus Canada and Washington, DC, he secured about 14 various banners and pennants.

Upon mentioning the nation's capital, Gilbert recalled the taxi ride he and a buddy had that covered almost every important street in Washington. The combined cost of said ride totaled exactly 40 cents.

It happened when the scouts were on their way back to the hotel. The cab was flagged by a businessman who had to reach a certain destination in one big hurry. So the boys went along for the ride.

On the way back to their original destination, the cabbie drove at a more relaxed speed and acted as sight-seeing guide, showing the scouts various points of interest and many important buildings and monuments.

Ned and Gilbert readily insisted that they weren't homesick one iota, but they finally conceded it was rather nice to get back to familiar faces and surroundings.

Draftees Have No Choice Of Service Branch

M-Sgt. Stanford, in charge of the Army and Air Force Recruiting Station at San Jose, reminded young men of Campbell that the choice of service among the various branches of the Army is given only to volunteers and that draftees do not have any choice of service.

Volunteers who enlist in the Army for a period of three years or more may choose to serve in the Airborne, Armored Cavalry, Chemical Corps, Coast Artillery Corps, Corps of Engineers, Corps of Military Police, Field Artillery, Infantry, Medical Department, Ordnance, Quartermaster Corps, Signal Corps, Transportation Corps and may also enlist for assignment to the Far East. In addition, many volunteers are eligible for schooling and technical training.

"The work of the Selective Service is to provide young men to fill vacant positions," said Sgt. Stanford. "Therefore, their personal wishes with regard to type and place of service cannot be considered. I advise all young men of draft age who wish to make a choice of service to come to see me before their draft notices arrive. Once you are called by Selective Service, we cannot accept you as a volunteer."

Seventy-five men from Draft Board Local 60 will take pre-induction physical examinations on Monday in San Francisco, and a total of 108 men from Board 62 will follow suit August 14, according to Selective Service Headquarters.

Notices of the two boards affect Campbell registrants. The community is divided under both locals. Territory north of Campbell Avenue is governed by Local 62, while Local 60 includes the district south of Campbell Avenue.

Selective Service registrants chosen for the first call were notified by letter this week. Transportation, via bus, will be provided by draft headquarters in San Jose. Men ordered for physical examinations will report to San Francisco Induction Station.

every man who finishes his training with a clean record.
The Campbell devildog spent his first three weeks of training at the post where he received small arms, first aid, field sanitation, map and compass reading, military courtesy and infantry drill instruction.

The following three weeks, the young marine spent at the rifle range where for two weeks he was taught the fundamental principles of marksmanship and during the third week Justice made practical use of his training by firing the Marine Corps basic weapon, the M-1 rifle for a record score.

The new Pfc. spent his last four weeks in the Recruit Depot "boning" on additional subjects necessary to a Marine. These included bayonet fighting, combat formations of a rifle squad, digging of fox holes and a series of field problems where practical experience was gleaned through application of classroom work.

Justice will be attached to Casual Company at the Depot upon his return from leave. From this company he will be transferred to one of the many duty stations.

Roy W. "Bill" Downing, 17, son of Mrs. Harold Olson of 133 N. Winchester Road, has reported at Fort Ord for basic training. Downing enlisted in the Army Motor Pool division and left here Monday.

Word has been received here that Ernest Smith, 20, seaman 1/c is a crewman aboard the LSD Fort Marion which was one of the ships that took the U.S. Marines to Korea. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of 21 Sunnyside Avenue, Campbell, has served three years in the Navy and was to receive his discharge this month. Discharge was out of the question when enlistment rolls were frozen due to the war.

Harry Eidschun, 23, has received notice from his draft board to report to San Francisco, August 11, for a pre-induction physical examination.
Eidschun, who is employed by Nelson Grain Co., spent two years in the Merchant Marines during World War II.
He lives at 1996 McDaniel Avenue, San Jose.

An exhibition of photography prints will be presented at Villa Montalvo August 5, in connection with the Alma Trio recital.

Harold F. Elliott of Palo Alto, mechanical and electrical engineer who delves in photography as a hobby, will show a group of prints which recently won him election to associate membership in the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain.

Also included in the showing will be prints of American and European subjects which have been exhibited in principal cities in the U. S. and abroad. Elliott is a member of the Photographic Society of America.

During World War 1 he was associated with Federal Telegraph Co. that designed, built, and installed high-power radio transmitting equipment for the U. S. Government throughout the world.

Elliott has held patents purchased by Victor as basis of its first radio receiver. In the previous war he served as consultant to a federal radio research laboratory at Harvard University.

In course of his defense projects, Elliott worked in England on radar counter-measures for the RAF and the 8th Air Force.

Some of the prints in the exhibit were made on flights to England at that time.

POPULAR RECORDS: The litting folk-style waltz GOODNIGHT IRENE is rapidly shaping up as one of the big summer hits. There is something about the melody that haunts you and makes you want to hear it again and again. Whatever the style you prefer you can find a recording of this tune that will fit—Gordon Jenkins, Jo Stafford and Frank Sinatra are in pitching for the pops, the country-pops fans will enjoy the Red Foley and Ernest Tubbs version, Lenny Dee wraps the ditty up in a country-style organ solo and Gunter Lee Carr gives it the rhythm and blues treatment. There are also several other discings floating around in various styles so take your choice of this infectious tune—personally I prefer Gordon Jenkins (Decca 27077).

The parade of menu-like ditties continues with a tasty platter by Montana Slim—APPLE, CHERRY, MINCE & CHOCOLATE CREAM (Victor 210532). Disc dish is a clever novelty with a melody that adds sauce. On the flip Slim gives out smooth yodeling on TAKE IT EASY BLUES.

The Latin-styling of Xavier Cugat always makes for good listening and his latest MAMBO JAMBO is no exception (Columbia 33886). Another tune with South-of-the-Border flavor is MEXICAN MERRY-GO-ROUND done up in a neat little package by Edmund Ros (London 722).

Eddy Arnold sobs the folk lament ENCLOSED, ONE BROKEN HEART in sad and mournful style (Victor 21-0342). Lower deck picks up a bit as Eddy gives his all to CUDDLE BUGGIN' BABY.

If perchance you have been worried over the dearth of banjo records, it will be welcome news that Troise and His Banjoliers pick out eight old favorites in merry fashion on a new Long-Playing disc (London LPB 185). The two best tunes are RED WING & WHISTLING RUFUS. If you are like me, a little banjo goes a long ways but there is no denying the fact that these boys are really good.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: More welcome news is in store for the fortunate children who own a '45 rpm' record player. RCA Victor has just released ten new single records in the LITTLE NIPPER JUNIOR SERIES. Stars lined up for this series include Cliff Edwards, Texas Jim Robertson, Fran Allison, Spike Jones, Glenn Riggs and Jack Berch and the titles cov-

Mrs. C. Leick Dies At Campbell Home

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Caroline J. Leick, 83, who died at her home, 718 Pollard Rd., after a long illness.

She is survived by a son, Ernest C. Leick of Campbell, and two daughters, Mrs. Peggy Eckman of Campbell and Mrs. Jack Neff of Kings Canyon.

Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery, Colma, Cal.

Patrol, Private Cars Collide On SC-Saratoga Road

Highway Patrolman Fleet Montgomery sustained a head cut when his patrol car collided with a private car on the Santa Clara-Saratoga Road near Meridian Corners.

The other driver, Lucille Gilbert, 36, of Victory Village, San Jose, suffered a broken nose and multiple abrasions. She was treated at the Community Service Hospital.

The collision occurred when the patrol car attempted to make a "U" turn.

er nursery rhymes, cowboy songs, children's hymns and favorite stories.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: The Boston Pops Orchestra is perhaps without peers in their interpretation of the vast repertoire of the "popular classics." This delightful music of symphonic character appeals to many more people than the strict "long-haired" repertoire. The wealth of overtures, ballet suites from the operas, rhapsodies and dances from the various nations plus the contemporary music of symphonic calibre afford many hours of pleasure for our lighter moods.

The BALLET EGYPTIAN by Luigini is given a gilt-edge performance by Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra (Victor WDM 1357). The colorful flavor of this charming little classic is fully brought out by the clear and incisive playing of the Boston Pops Orchestra.

The sparkling ROSSINI OVERTURES are superbly interpreted by Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra (Victor WDM 1037). These Overtures, part of the vast catalogue of the "popular classics" contain a tremendous wealth of melody plus Rossini's extremely bright and charming sense of humor.
